KEYNOTE TOPICS

▶ Leading Change to Deliver Results

How to positively influence others to make Change work

Your role as a Leader isn't defined by your title or credentials, but by your ability to influence others in a positive way. It starts with modeling the attitudes, beliefs and behaviors you expect from those you lead. That's how you build trust and accountability at every level. Whether you're an experienced leader, new to your leadership role or somewhere in between, this session is jam-packed with strategies to get the "buy in" you need from others to make Change work.

▶ STAND OUT From the Crowd

How to Be the Person Everyone Wants on the Team!

In a world that demands more than ever before, you must find ways to add value, out-think old ideas, out-shine past performance and exceed expectations. It's all about attitude, using your strengths and enhancing your skills. Life and work are all about choices. The choices you make and the actions you take as a result of those choices will determine whether you STAND OUT as the person your colleagues are proud to work with as part of a successful team.

▶ I Already Took a Pain Pill, So Why Are You Still Here?

How to Deal with Difficult People

Difficult people can make it much harder to build a strong and cohesive team. They refuse to accept personal responsibility, resist Change, impede progress, create stress, and make everyone's jobs even harder. Jean delivers time-tested, practical strategies you can implement immediately to deal with difficult people in a professional way, reduce conflict, improve morale and productivity, and make sure that you and your team members enjoy coming to work!
